Damage of Cyber Crime
In 2022, the Internet Crime Complaint Center (IC3) reported the annual loss of complaints was

$10.3 billion

Chart values (2011–2022): 581.44, 800.49, 1450.7, 2710, 3500, 4200, 6900, 10,300

In 2022, the average cost of a data breach in the United States was

$9.44 million

The global average cost per data breach was

$4.35 million

AVERAGE COST OF A DATA BREACH IN THE UNITED STATES FROM 2006 TO 2022
USD Millions

| Year | USD Millions |
|------|-----|
| 2006 | 3.54 |
| 2007 | 4.79 |
| 2008 | 6.36 |
| 2009 | 6.66 |
| 2010 | 6.75 |
| 2011 | 7.24 |
| 2012 | 5.50 |
| 2013 | 5.40 |
| 2014 | 5.85 |
| 2015 | 5.53 |
| 2016 | 7.01 |
| 2017 | 7.35 |
| 2018 | 7.91 |
| 2019 | 8.19 |
| 2020 | 8.64 |
| 2021 | 9.05 |
| 2022 | 9.44 |

DISTRIBUTION OF CYBER ARRACKS ACROSS WORLDWIDE INDUSTRIES IN 2022

| Industry | Share of cyber attacks |
|----------|-----|
| Manufacturing | 24.8% |
| Finance & insurance | 18.9% |
| Professional, business & consumer services | 14.6% |
| Energy | 10.7% |
| Retail & wholesale | 8.7% |
| Education | 7.3% |
| Healthcare | 5.8% |
| Government | 4.8% |
| Transportation | 3.9% |
| Media & Telecom | 0.5% |

Share of cyber attacks
24.8%
of cyber attacks occured in the manufacturing industry.

Finance and insurance followed with

18.9%

Professional, business, and consumer services ranked third with

14.5%

The following data is from the 2023 cost of a data breach report by IBM and the Ponemon institute.